

Investing for income: Fixed-income edition

May 23, 2019

The new interest rate regime will be more challenging for fixed-income investors. But there is still opportunity.

If you've been investing in the bond market over the past few decades, you've been spoiled, says Ed Kerschner. In today's new interest rate regime, successful bond investing will not be as easy as it's been in the past. Investors will have to look beyond duration and consider other factors that drive fixed-income returns: credit, currency and inflation.
