

The case for investing in municipal bonds

September 27, 2018

Tax reform didn't hurt demand for municipal bonds — and rising rates could make munis even more attractive.

Why should investors consider municipal bonds? For investors looking for consistent returns and tax-exempt income, munis offer attractive taxable-equivalent yields and the default rate is generally low. And perhaps even more important right now: Municipal bonds can outperform in a rising rate environment.
