To assist our mutual fund shareholders in year-end planning, we are providing capital gain distribution estimates for the funds listed above. The estimates reflect undistributed net realized capital gains through July 31, 2019 and may not include all required tax adjustments. Please note that these figures are subject to change as required capital gain distributions, including appropriate tax adjustments, are determined through October 31, 2019. In addition, further sales of fund investments through October 31 (including sales to meet redemptions) and changes in outstanding fund shares through the record date will affect the per share distributions. Distributions will not be considered final until their declaration on the ex-dividend date of the capital gain distribution.

*Net short-term capital gains, when distributed, are generally taxable as ordinary income and are reported as Ordinary Dividends on Form 1099-DIV. Columbia Threadneedle Investments does not provide tax or legal advice. Please consult a tax advisor or tax attorney for specific tax or legal advice.
