The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires you to withdraw an annual Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your IRA(s) (Roth IRAs excluded) once you obtain age 70½. If you do not annually withdraw the total RMD amount from your Individual Retirement Account(s), the IRS can impose a 50% penalty tax on the RMD amount that should have been withdrawn. You may wish to contact Columbia Threadneedle Investments for the appropriate distribution forms so that you may start or continue to receive your required minimum distributions. To request distribution forms, call a representative at the telephone number listed below.
