Columbia Threadneedle Investments Partners with ITU World Triathlon Grand Final Chicago

Chicago – July 23, 2015 – Columbia Threadneedle Investments is proud to be the Global Financial Services Partner of the International Triathlon Union (ITU) World Triathlon Series Grand Final Chicago, from September 15-19. The event features four days of competition for more than 8,000 elite and amateur athletes, including 150 of the world's top Olympic-distance triathletes as they compete for a world championship title less than a year before the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro.

ITU World Triathlon Grand Final Chicago will feature Olympic-caliber elite triathletes and paratriathletes as well as amateur athletes across all age-groups racing in the same venue in and around Grant Park. Athletes will compete in events that begin in Lake Michigan and end at iconic Buckingham Fountain. The Grand Final is the culmination of the ITU World Triathlon Series with the leader of the Columbia Threadneedle Rankings being crowned World Champion.

In addition to its role as Global Financial Services Partner, Columbia Threadneedle is sponsoring Dare2tri, a local Chicago paratriathlon club, for the second consecutive year. Columbia Threadneedle will donate 50 race entries to their amateur and elite paratriathletes and proudly have its logo featured on Dare2tri team uniforms.

“We are pleased to partner with ITU World Triathlon Grand Final Chicago,” said Ted Truscott, CEO of Columbia Threadneedle Investments. “Our brand promise is ‘Your Success. Our Priority.’ That’s the same emphasis we place on our partnerships with ITU and Dare2tri to ensure a successful event in Chicago for all participants.”

"We are pleased to welcome Columbia Threadneedle Investments back as the official global partner of the ITU World Triathlon Grand Final Chicago," said Florian Riepe, President of ITU World Triathlon Grand Final Chicago. "Columbia Threadneedle has a long and proud history of delivering for investors, and the focus they place on their clients aligns with the goals we have for the world championship event this September."

"Dare2tri is thrilled to partner with Columbia Threadneedle for a second year," said Keri Serota, Dare2tri Co-Founder and Executive Director. "We are grateful to have a partner that fully believes in our mission to impact positively the lives of athletes with physical and visual impairments by developing their skills in paratriathlon. Columbia Threadneedle has shown a tremendous commitment to the world of paratriathlon and, with their support, the athletes will be going for the gold on the road to Rio."
